

Muslims are followers of the religion Islam, which began in Saudi Arabia around the seventh century.

The Qur'an is the central religious text of Islam, believed by Muslims to be a revelation from God.

Muslims believe that the Quran was orally revealed by God to the final prophet, Muhammad, through the archangel Gabriel.

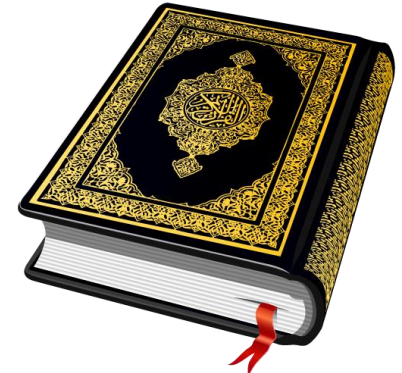

ISLAM – The Qur'an

Year 4

OUR BIG QUESTION

What is the importance of the Qur'an in a Muslim's life?

The Qur'an provides a complete code of conduct that offers guidance in every walk of a Muslims life.

KEY VOCABULARY

Qur'an

Allah Arabic

Hafiz Islam Subha

The Qur'an is treated with great respect and honour and contains 99 names for Allah.