Newsletter - December 2025 The season of Advent

The first week of Advent is nearly over - Advent is a time of hope, a time of waiting, a time of preparing for the coming of Christ. The Posada has started making its way around our families - it is lovely to see the children so excited about taking it home. Thank you to all for welcoming it into your homes. It is another lovely example of how our school community can share our significant religious times together - regardless of everyone's faith. What a special school family we have.

Catholic Life and Mission

Our school choir have a busy week next week - they will be going to both the elderly parishioners' brunch and also a local care home, to sing carols. Under the direction of Miss Healey, they have been working very hard to prepare for this.

Our EYFS & Year 2 Nativity play and our Year 3 & 4 Carol service both take place next week. We are very much looking forward to these occasions as we journey through Advent.

Holy Souls Church

Please note the change in Mass times - the 10am Sunday Mass is now at 9.30am but there is no 9am Mass at St Albans anymore. There is also not a 5pm Mass on a Sunday at Holy Souls.
